Mrs. Violet Harter, Harbor Assn. Love Gift chairman, will be the speaker. To acquaint the men with the society's program, representatives will be presented for the names of missionaries for whom the circles have been named.

Refreshments will be served by the Business and Professional Women's Circle.

PTA The Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Eugene Laxton

CASIMIR
Following the November theme "Panic," a demonstration on fire safety, including civilian defense, will be given by Battalion Chief Gordon Northington at the association meeting for Casimir PTA at 7:30 p.m., Nov. 15. A question and answer period will follow. Cub Scout Pack 730C, Den 9, will lead the Pledge of Allegiance and provide a skit in the program. The brass choir, Casimir Elementary, Milton Marcus director, will perform patriotic numbers. Seventh grade mothers will hostess. Casimir PTA suggested the school children bring surplus candy from Halloween to school and over 130 pounds were collected to be donated to the Spastic Children's Foundation, The Spanish American Home for Boys, and to the Navajo Indian children through the YMCA. The Family Skating Party will be held at 6:30 to 10 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 22, at the Torrance Roller Dome. Mrs. Barton Peters has explained this will replace the carnival and proceeds will benefit the Casimir PTA budget.

MAGRUDER
The Philip Magruder PTA is pleased to announce that "Mello-D-Bells" will appear at the association meeting on November 15. The group has become well known since their start five years ago under the direction of Mrs. Venita Griffith. Soloist for the evening will be Claire McCown singing the "Lord's Prayer."

RIVIERA PTA
"Fathers Night" will be featured at the association meeting, according to Robert Sauer, chairman, at 8 p.m., Nov. 15, in the school cafeteria. The noted psychologist, Dr. Lillian Waggenheim of Beverly Hills will moderate a panel of Riviera residents on the theme, "Our Livelihood." Dr. Waggenheim is a clinical psychologist and lecturer at the University of Southern California who works with future teachers, reading clinics, and private reading classes. Panel members include Col. Max Boyer, stationed with the Air Force Plant Representative Office at North American Aviation; Chester Phillipson, M.D. with private practice in Torrance; and Francis T. Fox, general manager of International Airport and the Division of Airports, Los Angeles. Mrs. Howard Frace and Mrs.

Charles Gleason will present Tom Hatten of "The Adventures of Popeye" show in a personal appearance featuring 45 minutes of cartoon fun on Nov. 18 at 12:30 p.m. and 1:15 p.m. He will feature a "chalk talk" and a live version of the "squiggle contest." Surprises will include drawings of boys and girls in the audience.

MADRONA
Madrone board members met for a business meeting in the home of Mrs. Hugh Brady. Mrs. William Roach, parent education, has invited the mothers to attend a cooking and decorating demonstration to help in holiday planning, as guests of the Edison Co. on Nov. 13. Interested parents please call Mrs. Roach. Next board meeting will be Nov. 30.
